BIODIVERSITY DAY

Sunday 6th July 2025

11am – 3pm

Sunday July 6th will be 'Biodiversity Day' at Ditchley.

Parking at 'Little Park' (What3Words:///gateway.sprouting.subtitle) beside the Ditchley Foundation - accessed through the Charlbury Gates on the Ditchley Road - guests can bring their own picnic to enjoy before or after the two or three mile walks (shorter options also available!).

On areas not normally open to the public, the aim will be to take in special trees, wildflower mixes, crops, ponds, a recently discovered sheep wash as well as a display of horse logging so guests can enjoy the beauty and diversity within Ditchley.

A route map and markers will guide guests on this inaugural free of charge biodiversity day

Gates Open at 11.00am
